

Here is a negotiation update:

- As you know, the Table Team (TT) met with the administration on 5/9 and 5/15 to discuss proposals. Sadly, the mother of our attorney passed away and we were unable to meet the week of May 22. However, we did convene at the table on May 31st. At that meeting we reached tentative agreements (TA) on a couple of proposals and further discussed our economic proposal.
- Our next negotiation session will be Monday, June 11, from 10-5. We also have negotiations scheduled from 10-5 on June 20, 25, and 28.
- Prior to the June 11 meeting, the TT met to discuss open proposals on Thursday, June 7 (3:00 to 5:25) and this morning, Friday, June 8 (8:00 to 9:30).
- The Administration, while moving slowly, is still looking to complete the negotiation by the end of June.
- We are anticipating a BBT meeting sometime between June 20-30. We will announce it as soon as we possibly can.
